PIRATES BOW TO CHAMPIONS

NEW YORKS DEFEAT DREYFUSS'S PETS BY SCORE OF 5 TO 3.

Superior Batting by McGraw's Hustlers and Fatal Hesitation by Third Baseman Leaci-Brooklyns Lose in Cincinnati-Chicages and Quakers Win.

The New York Nationals opened in Pittsburg yesterday, and had the satisfaction of subjugating the Pirates. They also knocked n out of second place, the Quakers taking | The New Yorks moved up to seventh place. the latter position by virtue of a victory in St. Louis. The Brooklyns began their West-ern campaign with a defeat in Cincinnati, and the Chicagos had an easy time with the Bostons. The results:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 5; PITTBBURG, 3.

PITTSBURG, June 7.—Tommy Leach handed to-day's game over to the New Yorks through an error of judgment in the eighth inning. In the eighth Mathewson swung on the first ball for a single. Donlin forced Matthewson. Browne batted a ball to Leach, who picked it up and hesitated. Then he threw it to Clancy, but Browne was safe. Donlin could easily have been caught at second, as Ritchey covered the bag. McGann took a base on balls and Bresnahan swung hard for a single, scoring Donlin and Browne. Mertes hit to Clark, who threw to Leach at third, catching Bresnahan, while McGann scored. Dahlen filed to Clarke. In this imning Howard, on the coaching line, got the crowd with him, and the noise and excitement was tremendous.

The Pirates 'made their first run in the second on Ritchey's hit, a wild throw by Mertes and Leach's single. The Pittsburgs tried to overcome the lead in the eighth, but fall one short of tying the score. Flaherty got to first on an error by Gilbert, who let the ball pass. Clymer took first on Devlin's fumble. Flaherty scored on Clarke's double, which was followed by a wild pitch, scoring Clymer. But' the fun ended here. The Champions, to make sure of the game brought in another run in the ninth. Devlin made a three bugger. Gilbert went out, Ritchey to Clancy. Mathewson made his second hit of the game and Devlin scored.

Mathewson made ten Pirate club swingers fan the air. The score:

CINCINNATI, 5; BROOKLYN, 4. CINCINNATI, 5: BROOKLYN, 4.

CINCINNATI, June 7.—Ideal bunching of few hits enabled the Reds to beat out the Brooklyns who made more hits and less errors. But one hit went to waste for the locals. Malay, who scored thrice, was hit in the first, and singles by Lumley and Batch scored him. He walked in the third, and Sheckard's triple and Lumley's single followed. Two singles, a double and an error put the Reds even in the fourth, and they won out in the sixth on Kelley's triple, two singles and a stolen base. The score:

New Yorks Three Runs Behind When Rain

Stope Game. One man was out in the fifth inning yes-terday when rain stopped the game between the New Yorks and Clevelands. The Cleveland sluggers had hit Powell hard in the first inning, and the score was 3 to 0 in their favor when the rain came. The New Yorks had not made a hit off Hess, the Cleveland pitcher. The Bostons went back to fifth place by de feating St. Louis, and the Chicagos created another deadlock for second place by white-washing the Philadelphias. The Washing-ton-Detroit game was prevented by rain.

Baseball Notes.

J. F. Curtis-Keeler, 336; Lajole, 302. Willie Keeler hit safely in 32 out of his first 38 in the box it is a foul, and he is not out.

C. W. Rudyard.—The umpire's judgment is the thing to go by in such a play. He must judge the conditions of the play and decide accordingly.

Malay of the Brooklyns is a promising looking youngster. He has all round ability, stands up to the plate nicely and goes after fly balls with good judgment.

The New York American good judgment.

The New York Americans lost eight straight games while away from home. That is rare in a league where the teams are so evenly matched as in the American. Griffith says it will not occur again.

Neither Mathewson nor McGinnity has the field to himself as the New York star boxman this season. Both are pitching good ball, but Ames and Taylor are fully as prominent in the box and doing just as good if not more consistent work. and Taylor are fully as prominent in the box and doing just as good if not more consistent work.

The New York Americans have used two or more pitchers to a game more times this season than they have played games in which one pitcher went through the entire contest. Sixteen times one pitcher went through the whole game, while there has been a change in the box in twenty games.

The squeeze is the newest thing in baseball tactics, but it is worked mighty seidom. One reason is that the temptation to bang the ball over the infelders' heads when they are playing in is strong, and another is that the man on third base is timorous and won't cut loose from third base with enough abandon when the batter is about to tap the hall.

Both Chicago teams lead in extra tunning victories. Yach has won four, the White Sox two eleven inning games, one twelve inning and one thirteen inning. The Chicago Nationals have won two ten inning games, one eleven inning and one thirteen inning. The other records to date of extra inning victories are as follows: American League: Boston, one eleventhinng Washington, two eleven inning. Detroit, one ten inning, one sixteen inning. St. Louis, one there in inning. National League: New York, one twelve and one thirteen inning. Cincinnett inning. Washington and the welve mining. St. Louis, one fourteen inning. Pittsburg, two ten and one eleven inning. Cincinnati, three ten inning; St. Louis, one fourteen inning. So far as the figures themselves are concerned there is little to show that the fielders nowadays have anything on the fielders of twenty years ago. First base playing nowadays shows marked improvement in the number of assists, and the bag is played differently: but comparisons of the outhelders' work do not put the old timers in a poor light. In 1887 Jimmy Fogarity had 39 assists in 299 games, in 1889 he had 42 assists in 128 games; while Jimmy Ryan, one of the greatest throwers that ever graced the outer garden, had 33 assists in 120 games in 1895. George Browne, a fine thrower, had 20 assists in 149 games in 1904, and Sebring had 27 in 138 games. In 1885 Mike Kelley had 29 assists in 85 games. In 1885 Mike Kelley had 29 assists in 58 games. There was more throwing men out at the plate from the outfield on a line in those days than now. The base running may be faster now than then, but as against Wagner's 52 stolen basea last year Fogarty stole 102 one season and Johnny Ward 111, and in fewer games than Wagner played. The improvement in base-ball is more in team play than individually.

Sea Cliff One Design Class Races.

DAINGERFIELD GALLOPS HOME

WINS HIS FIRST SELLING RACE FROM DE RESZKE IN MUD.

Proper Takes the Handleap and Clover Stakes Go to Transmute-Campo, Cassini and Captain Beb in Front -Six Favorites Are Bowied O er.

Six favorites were bowled over in the sloppy mud at Gravesend yesterday, where the attendance was limited to the regulars. The necessary and a heavy fall of rain just after the fifth race drove everybody to cover. A more disagreeable day has not been encountered by turf enthusiasts in a long time, yet there were numerous incidents that Major Daingerfield, once sold for $25,000, but since then a horse of such erratic quality that the public lost confidence in him long ago, made his first appearance in a selling race, carrying P. J. Dwyer's colors in the fifth event, at a mile and a furlong. Daingerfield was entered to be sold for $3,000, which made him carry 118 pounds. As the old fellow always liked the mud, he was soon backed down to 17 to 10, with M. L. Hayman's De Reszke, who was in receipt of ten pounds from Daingerfield, closing a slight favorite over him at 8 to 5. But when it came right down to cases De Reszke was not in it at all. He went to the front at the start and showed the way until he got into the backstretch, where Martin cut Daingerfield loose and he took the lead so quickly that the crowd laughed. After that it was a gallop for the plack horse, as he won by three lengths in 157. De Reszke had a length and a half over E. R. Thomas's Onatas, 4 to 1.

W. B. Jennings's Proper, who will start in the Suburban, qualified for that event when he won the handloap at a mile and seventy yards, which he captured in a big gallop. Garnish, because of his recent victory over Beldame and his well known fondness for the going, was the favorite at threes, but Proper, who was in receipt of four pounds from him, was well played at 7 to 2. Garnish ran a bad race and was ten lengths out of the money, whereas Proper, after trailing behind Goldsmith and Buttling, the early pacemakers, came on under a clever ride in the stretch and took the race by two lengths from Go Between, 5 to 1, in 1:40 2-5. Buttling was third, three parts of a length back.

E. E. Smathers's Transmute, played down to fives, was victorious in the Clover Stakes, for two-year-old fillies at five furliongs. Burns took her to the front at the quarter pole and she just breezed home three lengths to the good in 1:03. Woodford Clay's Running Water, a receding favorite, nailed the place in the last jump by a head from R. H. McCarter Potter's Belle of Pequest. 5 to 1.

A rather weak ride by J. Kelly on Montreson, second choice, enabled Campo, backed down to fives, to win the first race, for platers at about six furlongs, by three parts of a length. Montreson might have won with more vigorous handling, but as it was he took the place from S. B. Brown's Florentine, a 25 to 1 shot. Quadrille, the favorite, was shut off early. The time was: 1:12:1-5

The Delaware Stable's Cassini, 7 to 2 second choice, made the bulk of the pace in the second event, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, winning in a romp by four lengths in 1:00 3-5. Newton Bennington's Sir Brinkley, 15 to 1, a head for the place. Woodford Clay's Cary, the favorite, could not run in the mud and was badly beaten.

Clay also provided another losing favorite in Angler, backed down to evens, who failed to get in the money in the last race, for maidens at a mile and a sixteenth. S. B. Brown's Captain Bob, lowered to threes, was the real thing, however, for he was an easy winner by a length and a half in 1:53. Ismailian, 7 to 1, had a mortgage on the place, with Sim Deimel's Yachting Girl, 7 to 1, running third, and beating the favorite by three parts of a len Beldame and his well known fondness for the going, was the favorite at threes, but Proper,

J. F. Harris Buys the Chanticleer. The fine schooner yacht Chanticleer, which was built for the late George W. Weld, has been purchased by John F. Harris of Chicago, who has a summer home on the Massa-chusetts coast. It is thought that Mr. Harris chusetts coasy. It is thought that Mr. Harris will enter the yacht in the race from Marblehead to Halifax, which is to be sailed next August.

The Chanticleer is a steel vessel and was designed and built by Charles L. Seabury at Morris Heights in 1902. She is fitted as a comfortable cruiser, having liberal accommodations under a flush deck. Her rig is not extreme, but is liberal enough to give her a good turn of speed. Her dimensions are 118 feet over all, 79 feet on the water line, 22.1 feet beam and 112.5 feet draft. Mr. Weld had her built just before he sold the Hildegarde. She is said to have cost $45,000.

Priscilla Now an Auxiliary. The Priscilla, which was built as a cup defender in 1885 and raced against the Puritan and Atlantic, is now an auxiliary yacht and is owned by Commodore George H. The handi-cap for three-year-olds, about six furlongs, has some notable entries, including Ivan the Terrible, the top weight; Waterlight, Hand-zarra, Zeala and others. In the steeplechase Jim Newman, Bonfire, Black Death and Calographatchee seem the best. Two-year-olds will run in the third race, at five furlongs with run in the third race, at five furlongs, with Cinchona, Andria, Phyllis A., Gold Badge and Special License possibly the best. In the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Buttons, Onatas, Contend, Lord Badge and Chimney Sweep may be the factors, St. Estephe ought to win the last race from a poor lot of two-year-old fillies and geldings. A. A. U. MEET FOR PORTLAND.

National Championship to Be Held in Connection With Lewis and Clark Exposition. The championship committee of the A. A. U announced yesterday that the national track and field meet this year would be held under the auspices of the Lewis and Clark Exposi-tion at Portland, Ore. It was said the Pacific Coast Association demanded the fixture and that is the reason the meet has gone to the far West. The dates selected are Aug. 4 and 5. A journey to Portland will be rather expensive to Eastern athletes. The ordinary fare per man is $215 a round trip, but it is said the rates will be much cheaper for the visiting athletes. Along with being an expensive one, it will be a tiresome trip for it will take six days by rail.

is in the rigger's hands. She has a fine lot of light spars.

The North Star, owned by Rear Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, which has been overhauled on the Clyde, is in commission.

The new hollow mast for Mrs. G. Farley Turner's 22 rater. Sonya, which has been made by Herreshoff, is due in England this week.

The schooner being built for S. F. Houston at Onner's yard at Essex is planked. This boat is 31 feet long and will be named Shepherdess.

Frederick L. Gay's schooner Foam is in commission again at Marbiehead, and although 42 years old, she looks as well and up to date as boats that are many years younger.

Henry A. Morss is to have a schooner built this summer from designs by Clinton H. Crane. The new boat will be 55 feet on the water line and built to rate under the new rule.

A Spanish designed and built yacht is to race at the Kiel regattas. She will represent the Real Club Nautico and was designd by Don Leon Carrasco. King Alfonso sent a telegram to the club saying that he hoped that good luck would favor the first Spanish built boat entered in the Kiel races.

Crowninshield has received an order for a sloop similar to the one designed by the less tell developments.

HILDEBRAND TO RIDE AGAIN

WILL RESUME SADDLE WORK AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

Club Stewards Find No Evidence of Crooked Riding-Sloan Is Here and Wants a License—Arsenal, Tuesday's Winner, to Be Disqualified-Big Betting

Information was received by THE SUN last night to the effect that Jockey Eugene Hildebrand will be allowed to resume riding when the meeting at Sheepshead Bay opens, one week from to-day. Hildebrand was suspended recently for the remainder of the Gravesend meeting, by the stewards presions, because of a poor ride on H. P. Whitney's Duenna in a race won by a heavily backed filly named Last Cherry. Hildebrand's case was referred to the Jockey Club for further action, and since that time a thorough in-vestigation has been made, with the result that the boy has been practically exonerated. He is under contract to Mr. Whitney, and Joe Yeager also has a call on his services. It is understood that no evidence of an incriminating nature was found against him, so tha his limited suspension was considered punishment enough. end yesterday. He has been riding in the West on the tracks of the American Turf Association for Edward Corrigan, and his appearance here caused some surprise. When asked why he had come East, Sloan said to a

I can ride as well as ever, but I got rather tired of the Western game and thought I would come East, where I hope I will be allowed to ride some of these I have been taking excellent care of myself and have turned over a new leaf as to Sloan has many friends who would like to see him receive a license from the Jockey Club. The only reason he remains on the ground is said to be the fact that he was notified a number of years ago not to reapply to the English Jockey Club for a license o ride in that country. No charges were brought against him, and it is a matter of record that he has never been brought before he stewards in any country on a charge of crookedness. Sloan is popular with many horsemen and men of influence in the councils of the turf, and his reappearance in the saddle here, when there is a demand for good jockeys. would be hailed with general satisfaction The Kansas City newspapers have an account of Sloan's gallantry in stopping a runaway horse last Monday on one of the principal streets. The horse was dashing madly toward a crowd of women and children when Tod took a running jump, grabbed the bridle and after being dragged two blocks sucseeded in stopping the animal.

In all probability the stewards at Graves end will disqualify George F. Johnson's Arsenal, who won the second race on Tues-Arsenal, who won the second race on Tuesday, first money in that case going to Charley Oxx's Possession, who ran second. It seems that an apprentice allowance of five pounds was claimed for Arsenal, who was ridden by Johnny Doyle. The boy weighed in all right, but it was discovered yesterday that he had never taken out apprentice papers, so that Arsenal was really five pounds short of weight. The disqualification, if made, will not affect the payment of bets, as it is too late now.

will not affect the payment of bets, as it is too late now.

There were still thirteen non-members in line with the Mets yesterday. As has been the case for several days, the first race carried more money in the aggregate than any of the others. Campo, the winner, was backed down to fives, Julius Frank and George Riordan each winning $5,000, with $3,000 for Soi Lichtenstien. Quadrille and Montreson, meanwhile, burned up thousands. Dave Gideon lost $2,000 on Quadrille, with Morris Stack dropping $1,500, and A. J. Levy, Willie Applegate, Henry Harris, Eole Pearsall and a Mr. curtis each getting rid of $1,000. Mike Minden parted with $500. Leo Mayer bet $2,500 on Montreson, George Wheelook placed $2,000, Eddle Burke $1,000, Frank Ivler $1,000 and Al Stokes $500. Tim Payne cut up $500 on Tyron, who enabled Baird to have his first mount since his case was decided in his favor by the courts.

Johnny Coleman and Morris Stack each had $2,000 on Cassini, the winner of the second race, at 7 to 2. English Bill Jackman, Jack McDonald and Tyler bet on Sandy D. Leo Mayer took Cary for $2,000, with George Riordan betting $500 straight on Marius Caius at 10 to 1.

Stack won another bet of $7,000 to $2,000 Caius at 10 to 1.

Stack won another bet of $7,000 to $2,000 on Proper in the third race. When Go Between ran second, Coleman cashed a place bet of $2,000 to $1,000, with Charley Fox betting $1,000 across the boards. Jack McGinnis got rid of $1,000 on Buttling, while Max Blumenthal and Julius Frank were among those who supported Workman. The heavy operators did not care much for Garnish, who carried the public's money at threes.

King Alfonso sent a telegram to the club saying that he hoped that good luck would favor the first Spanish built boat entered in the Kiel race. Crowninshield has received an order for a sloop similar to the one designed by him last fall for use in Russia. This boat is for Louis Sayer of Canaffely and Lake, N. Y., and will be 43 feet over all. 285 feet on the waterline, 0 feet 7 inches beam and 6 feet 4 inches drait. She will spread 1.180 square for canvas.

The Quand Même, which was lost in the Algiera Toulon race, has been found aftout off the coast of Sardinia. The Duc Decazes is going to claim the will take the boat to Algiers under her own power. She is now at Bizeria.

An Australian yacht club has contrived to impart an interesting element to its racing. In one race it was necessary for the boat to drop a "model" of a man over the stern into the water as they crossed the starting line on the first and second from the work of the moment he was practically unnotified. FOR DEWAR CUP. Challenge Out for Automobile Emblem Held by Louis Ross. DETROIT, Mich., June 7.—Henry Ford of this city has sent a challenge for the Dewar this city has sent a challenge for the Dewar Cup, the international mile (straightaway) trophy, to the trustees of the cup. Louis S. Ross, who won the trophy at Ormond-Daytona beach last January, is the present holder. The conditions under which the cup is held are that it shall be perpetual and shall be contested for twice a year at any straightaway cours, which the committee shall designate. If there are no challenges the trustees are empowered to promote a race. One of the competitions is usually held in Florida.

Mr. Ford's challenge asks that the race be held not later than August. Ford had a car entered in the Ormond race, but part of its gear got out of order before the event and he withdrew his entry. As the contest is open to all cars coming under the international weight classification, without regard to power or nationality, it is probable that more than Mr. Ford's and Mr. Ross's cars will be entered in the event.
